Von Michelle D. Argyle : Out of Tune (English Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Out of Tune (English Edition):

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Leichte LektreVon Gabi Lorzfr zwischendurch. Die Geschichte spielt in der Welt der Countrymusik. Maggie, die Tochter eines berühmten Country-Music Duos muss Ihren Weg in der Musik und der Liebe finden. Etwas vorhersehbar aber schön zu lesen, es war für mich eines der Bücher die einen durch den Tag begleiten, auch wenn man gerade nicht liest.

Kurzbeschreibung Twenty-year-old Maggie Roads parents are legendary in the country music world. She wants nothing more than to follow in their footsteps, but the limelight isn't reserved for singers who can't carry a tune, let alone keep a rhythm. When her parents tell her they're getting divorced, Maggie decides it's time to leave home and take her future into her own hands. Moving in with Cole, her best friend and sometimes boyfriend, might not be the best of ideas, but she's got to start somewhere. Their off-and-on romance gets even more complicated when Maggie crushes on her new voice teacher, Nathan, who unlocks her stunning potential. A sensational music career of her own is finally within reach, but Maggie might need more than perfect pitch to find what she's really looking for.
