KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen2 von 2 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Parker on parenthood....Von Ein KundeThis book provides closure to the door left open by Early Autumn. Paul returns to the forefront as he and Spenser seek his wayward mother. The theme of this novel is parenthood...Paul and Spenser...the Brozs...Spenser and his father (and the uncles)...even Spenser and Susan and their "baby" Pearl. The underlying quest/adventure is good but the real draw for Spenser fans is a look back into the detective's youth. The story of the young Spenser's encounter with the bear alone is worth the price of the book. My second favorite Spenser novel; I'll let the readers of this review guess what the first is.0 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Na ja ...Von DIMIKann man lesen; schlichtes Englisch, schlichte Charaktere, schlichte Handlung. Auf den Verfasser ist insofern

Verla, als er immer wieder den gleichen Roman schreibt. Strandlektre zum anschließenden wegschmeißen (bzw. Ischen). 0 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Spenser Rox Von LNNSpenser is such a great character. I'm not sure if I like him, Hawk or Susan best. The relationship with Paul is interesting, mob references intriguing and an overall great read.

KurzbeschreibungTen years ago, Spenser saved a teenage boy from his father's rage. Now, in his twenties, the son is seeking answers to his mother's sudden disappearance. And once again, Spenser is the only one he can turn to.
