Rise from the ashesVon MagritteOnly for you is the first book by Genna Rulon, a very talented young lady.Pices of you is the second. Please do read the book in the right order even if they could be read as stand alones.It does not end in a cliffhanger (thank you so much Genna). I enjoyed the plot and the characters. Everleigh and her best friend Samantha are attending Hensley University and try to protect themselves from the attacks taking place at the university... but Samantha did not manage to escape, just to survive. (this was in the first book) Now Hunter and Everleigh are doing their best to bring her back but it's just too hard. And then there is Griffin. In love with her from the shadow for such a long time. Suffering for all she has suffered, afraid that she will not ever be able to love after having been betrayed. But their attraction exists and he will do everything to love her and keep her safe. The writing is good. It keeps you reading (or at least it did with me). There are plenty of things happening through the book, not all very logical but it did not disturb me really. The story is deep about fear, abuse, violence, love, living... Samantha and Griffin are great! I underscored plenty of sentences in the book; this is how nicely it is written. Would I recommend it? Yep, already did. Would I buy part two? Well, yep, already did ;) 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. definitely better Von Anjlikeyep, totally worth the time and money. hilarious dialogue, heart warming love story and a few twists to keep it all spicy. this second book has better flow and fits from beginning to end. the outrageously witty repartee in the first book has been toned down but fits the plot nicely and still offers a lot of laughs. looking forward to meg's story. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich.
