Suspense, crime and love Von Ruth Hans Who loves crimes, will just love all the books by Julie Miller! She describes her heroes with dark shadows hunting them from their pasts, but always protective of those they love and always capable to start again living to the fullest and finding love again.

Kurzbeschreibung While investigating a reported crime, Detective A.J. Rodriguez discovered there wasn't a trace of any murder having been committed! But hearing-impaired heiress Claire Winthrop insisted she'd stumbled upon a slain employee in her father's high-rise building and claimed she could ID the hit man. Although the lack of evidence pointed to an open-and-shut case of a pampered socialite clamoring for attention, A.J. sniffed a deadly cover-up. Powerfully drawn together, the street-tough lawman soothed the shell-shocked princess with a tantalizing kiss that bewitched both their hearts. However, when A.J. pulled Claire into his dark, dangerous world, he knew he'd better stick to police business or the killer could permanently silence his beloved witness.
