Von Misty Dawn Pulsipher : Pride's Prejudice (English Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Pride's Prejudice (English Edition):

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Nette moderne VersionVon verenaIch habe das Buch sehr gerne gelesen. Zumal es auch einige witzige Szenen gab. Besonders gefallen hat mir das "Knistern" zwischen Darcy und Lizzy, auch wenn es manchmal doch ziemlich kitschig war. Einen Stern Abzug, weil das Ende ziemlich berhasstet gewesen ist und der unvermeidliche Antrag (Mr. Darcy noch "Jungmann") viel zu schnell kam. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Ein moderner Blick auf Stolz und Vorurteil Von SaFi Die Namen der Protagonisten und die Handlung sind an den Klassiker von Jane Austen angelehnt. Wer Stolz und Vorurteil mochte, wird wohl auch diese "moderne" Version mögen

Kurzbeschreibung Beth Pride really can't stand William Darcy: he snubbed her at the Hartford College Childrens Benefit Auction; he has an infuriating propensity for pushing her buttons; his actions are frequently at odds with his words; and even his melting chocolate eyes and impressive physique don't quite make up for his deficient personality. Beth's plan to avoid William backfires when her roommate falls for his best friend. As the unlikely duo are thrown together time and again, Beth begins to second-guess her earlier assumptions about William. Will Prides prejudice keep her from a happy ending, or will Beth discover that first impressions aren't always what they seem? Based on Jane Austen's Pride and Prejudice.
