Viel Fantasy fr wenig GeldVon Nils MllerIch bin auf vielerlei Weise positive berrascht von dem Buch. Es berzeugt auf sprachlicher Ebene und auf der Worldbuilding Ebene. Die Dialoge sind Highlights, wunderbar geschrieben, detailreich und humorvoll.Auch die Art wie die Hauptperson dargestellt wird ist spannend, ist sie doch nicht im simplen Schema Gut und Bse gefangen, sondern versucht selber noch die Dinge einzuordnen. Mann kann durchaus dieses Buch der dunkleren Ecke der Fantasy zuordnen.Das Englisch ist relativ leicht zu verstehen und sollte auch fr nicht ganz so begabte durchaus verständlich sein. Teilweise gibt es noch leichte Formatierungs- und Satzfehler, diese lenken aber nicht störend ab. Alles in allem hätte ich solch hohe Qualität nicht für einen so geringen Preis erwartet. 1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Fantasy (not only) for DnD fans Von Customer I stumbled upon the youtube videos of the author about DMing for DnD. To support him I looked into this book and was immediately (rat) caught. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Great read! Great author! Von Sorcery Hello Matthew. I love your YouTube channel! Reading this book now. Thank you for sharing your dm experiences. I'm a big fan.

Kurzbeschreibung For centuries the people of Ollghum Keep relied on the knights of the Green Order to protect them from the horrors of the haunted wood. Now, as before, a monstrous army marches on their small town. But this time, the Green Order is nowhere to be found. The Bishop sends the priest Heden into the wood, to find out why. Arriving at their secret priory, Heden discovers their commander is dead, the remaining knights paralyzed with despair. They will not act, they will not tell him what happened, and with each hour the monstrous army gets closer to Ollghum Keep. Thousands will die if the priest fails. When the knights start dying one by one, Heden must race to unravel the conspiracy of silence and save the knights from themselves so they can save the people they were sworn to guard.
