Von Catherine Mann : Private Maneuvers (Wingmen Warriors) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Private Maneuvers (Wingmen Warriors):

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Tolles Buch!Von Ein KundeDas ist bisher das beste Buch von Catherine Mann, das ich gelesen habe. Die Heldin, Darcy, ist keineswegs unbeholfen oder schutzbedrftig, sondern steht mit beiden Beinen im Leben. Dazu kommt der CIA-Agent Max, der undercover arbeitet und als Meeresbiologe zusammen mit seinen Delfinen von ihr nach Guam geflogen wird. Dort gilt es einiges an Abenteuern zu bestehen und auch noch ein paar Schatten der Vergangenheit zu bewltigen.Das Buch hat nicht nur spannende Actionelemente, es besticht vor allem durch die Dialoge und die Beziehung zwischen den Hauptpersonen. Gerade wenn die beiden zusammen "auftreten" kommt auch der Humor nicht zu kurz.

Empfehlenswert! Das einzige Problem ist, dass das Buch irgendwann zu Ende ist...

Kurzbeschreibung C-17 copilot Darcy "Wren" Renshaw wanted a piece of the war-zone action like the rest of her air-force family. Instead, she was stuck hauling a brooding scientist to the calm waters of Guam. Darcy thought she was being shuffled far away from the action...until she met Max Keagan and embarked on the mission of her life. Undercover CIA agent Max needed a military airlift to a South Pacific island. He didn't need First Lieutenant Darcy Renshaw blowing his cover and bringing chaos to his top secret program. But Darcy and danger seemed destined to go hand in hand. And while trying to keep Darcy safe, Max realized he was soon in danger of losing his well-guarded heart.
