Von Gertrude Stein : Selected Writings of Gertrude Stein before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Selected Writings of Gertrude Stein:

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen4 von 4 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Well compiled offering of a diverse writerVon D. SwansonNormally I am hesitant to give a book 5 stars, I try to save this rating for when I really really really am impressed by it, and if this hadn't been a compilation of Stein's writing, I might not have given it this rating. It is really Carl Van Vechten that deserves the stars, Stein's writing is a bit much to digest or even swallow a lot of times, but Van Vechten gives an insightful foreword and has selected a diverse array of this colorful and eccentric author's writing. I had never read any of her work before I happened upon this edition and it proved insightful to be able to compare Tender Buttons and The Autobiography of Alice B. Toklas together side by side, as this edition allows you to do. A good way to gain a feel for the work of Gertrude Stein
