protagonists are well described, deep characters whose stories I was eager to follow. Great read, full recommendation.

Kurzbeschreibung Disastrous love life aside, Charlotte Evans is rather content with her life. Her quaint little art gallery is plodding along nicely, and her sister Emilys artistic career is about to take off, thanks to her tireless promotion. She even gets to see her best friend every day and drink his delicious coffee in the caf next door. But when dastardly property developer Craig Carmichael comes along, threatening to demolish her gallery and take everything away, Charlotte has an unexpected fight on her hands. Not only is she battling to stop Craigs development, shes also struggling against the mysterious magnetic pull that has her on a collision course with Craig himself. Craig Carmichael is fighting the Battle for Boundary Street on more than one front. The tenants of the building he wants to knock down are mounting a strong case against him and in a hot-headed moment he put his career on the line for a project that is threatening to fail. If the project doesnt succeed he will lose everything, but for some reason hes having trouble maintaining his focus. As their worlds begin to unravel around them, anyone could win. Its what they might lose that has Charlotte and Craig wondering what it is they really want.
