New Outlook on A Cuise Ship LifestyleVon Happy BuyerAs a basketball playing, masculine kind of guy, I wouldn't normally read this kind of book, but one of my cousins told me I should give it a try because even though it is written mostly for women, it's really entertaining and gave insight into working on cruise ships because the author once worked on them - and I've often wondered about what they'd be like. She was right, I really got into it and read it in a few days! To be honest, I did like the sex scenes (what guy doesn't?)- a few of them caught me off guard with being pretty crazy, but none of them were that tacky rubbish I've heard about recently. This is a great book and not just for women!

Kurzbeschreibung Exotic locations, sexy men, and crazy crew parties Ellie has her dream job or does she? When Ellie's fianc cheats on her with a younger, slimmer, blonde from the office, she boots him out of her life and finds solace in a fabulous photography job aboard a Caribbean cruise ship. Twenty-four hours on board and shes already shagged her sexy Texan colleague, who happens to love her muffin-top. Unfortunately hes leaving in a week, and his ex-girlfriend, a hot-headed Brazilian with stripper moves right out of the 90s and a talent for stealing boyfriends, is still on board and out for revenge. Ellie must work out how to deal with the loco ex, sort the lying scumbags from the good guys, and figure out how many crew members in a cabin it takes before officially becoming group sex. Who the hell knows? (Its five, actually.) Its a world completely unlike the one she left behind, but as she tries to find her place on board, Ellie discovers laughter and tears in equal measure. And in the midst of the craziness, she realises the greatest thing this lifestyle change has given her is the chance to rediscover herself.

ber den Autor und weitere Mitwirkende Cathryn Chapman nearly gave up her writing career when her eighth grade English teacher refused to believe her sensual poem could have been written by somebody so young. Two years later, when Cathryn was fourteen, that same English teacher declared she should start writing for Mills Boon, and a womens fiction writer was born. Cathryn graduated from university with a Business Degree and spent seven years travelling the world working on cruise ships, and living in London, New York, Paris and South America. In her thirties, she left a successful marketing and public relations career to pursue her dream of gracing the stages in Londons West End. When this failed dismally, Cathryn settled down in Brisbane with a husband and baby boy, and stayed in one place enough to finally write her first novel, SEX, LIES, AND CRUISING.
