THE COWBOY'S PASSION
Female private investigator Jessie Harmon is at the end of her rope. Her P.I. business is in the red, her credit cards are maxed out, and her rent is overdue. So when she takes on a job tracking down the heir to the Sloan fortune and handing him a billion dollar inheritance check, shes ecstatic. That is until she meets the sexy, sultry, and oh-so-stubborn heir, Blake Sutherland. Not only does he prefer the solitude of his ranch in the middle of Nowhereville to a potential estate in Bel Air, but Jessie is also having a heck of a time keeping her eye on her case - and off the fit of his wranglers. If she's not careful, Jessie may end up losing her heart along with her business. IN OVER HER HEAD Jason Cavanaugh was used to handling corporate merges - not babies. So, when the daughter he never knew he had shows up, the first thing on his to-do list is find a nanny. When fiery redhead Grace Standish arrives, reforming himself from playboy to play-dates becomes harder than Jason ever imagined. Instant attraction, a hot single dad, and a growing attachment to one little baby leave Grace in danger of losing her heart and in way over her head. SUMMER HEAT Recent law school graduate Sarah Cline refuses to be a small town nobody for the rest of her life. She takes a summer job helping to clean up the old Tidewater Ranch while studying to pass the Bar. What she didn't count on was falling for the mysterious, dark, and oh-so-sexy new owner of the place, Jack McIvers. Is this new attraction enough to make her give up her big dreams? Or will a big love spell big trouble for Sarah? REVIEWS: "The characters are passionate, humorous, and true to life.
