FantastischVon M. FischerIch habe dieses Buch als Geschenk von bekommen. (die besten hundert Bcher kostenlos)
Das Buch ist fantastisch geschrieben, spannend bis zum Schluss.Ich htte mir das Buch wahrscheinlich nicht besorgt, aber nach der Lektre hole ich mir heute beide Nachfolgebnde. Fr alle Leser, die gerne eine schne Liebesgeschichte lesen und es spannend mgen. Sie schaffte es bis zum Schluss den Leser zu fesseln Ich habe eine neue Autorin fr mich gefunden.

Kurzbeschreibung Winner of the 2004 RITA for Paranormal Romance! The only man she would ever love was more fascinated by the dead than he would ever be with her. Eve Abernathy calls on Lucien Thorpe to assist in ridding her house of the ghosts who haunt it, the amorous ghosts who replay their violent deaths night after night. She tells herself, time and again, that she would never ask for Lucien's help if there was any other option. After all, she has not forgiven him for leaving her waiting at the altar, two years earlier. Lucien still loves Eve, still wants her, but she refuses to listen to reason. He didn't forget her, he simply got engrossed in his work and let a day slip by, and it appears that she will never forgive or forget. Always different, always the odd man out, he knows Eve is the only woman for him. As Lucien and Eve work together to send two earthbound spirits to the other side, they rediscover love. They also uncover a murder mystery that threatens not only their happiness, but their very lives.

Synopsis Summoning the man who left her at the altar two years ago is definitely a last resort for Eve Abernathy. But paranormal expert Lucien Thorpe is the only person who can rid her house of the uneasy ghosts - noisy, lovemaking ghosts, no less - who haunt it, and Eve herself.
