Romantic-Thriller mit herausragender RahmenhandlungVon javelinxDani Warren, Archologin spezialisiert auf Textilien, und Shane Crowe, Ex-Sldner und Agent der privaten Organisation Risk Limited, treffen aufeinander beim Versuch, die Robe Buddhas, ein antikes Seidenartefakt mit grter religiser Bedeutung, vor einem Kultorraub zu retten. Erschwert wird die Jagd durch die anderen interessierten Parteien - die Volksrepublik China, ein internationales Gangsterkonsortium, sowie die in sich uneinig Azur-Mnche. Shane akzeptiert Dani nur widerwillig als Partnerin, trotz seines Widerspruchs will Risk Limited auf Danis Expertise jedoch nicht verzichten. Der Plot ist durchgehend spannend ohne Längen, die Interaktion der beiden Hauptfiguren - Shane als einsamer Wolf und großer Schweiger mit buddhistischem Fatalismus (von Dani "Zen-Cyborg" betitelt) und die nicht unterzukriegende Archologin bieten reichlich Stoff für einseitige Wortgefechte, widerwillige gegenseitige Anziehung und gefährliche Situationen, auch die Jagd nach einem kulturellen Artefakt ist interessant aufbereitet. Bemerkenswert ist der Plot durch die Ansiedlung des Artefaktes in Tibet und die Einbettung in den aktuellen kulturellen, politischen und religiösen Hintergrund - den verzweifelten Kampf um die jahrtausendealte Kultur und die gnadenlose Unterdrückung der Besatzer. Dadurch ist die Geschichte aktuell und hebt sich deutlich aus der Masse ab, verliert aber nichts an seiner prickelnden Spannung. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Great to read Von SprThis Book came in time and in good shape as promised, was much fun to read, thank you very much.

Kurzbeschreibung Sometimes you have to risk your life to save it. That was the choice facing Danielle Warren late one night on the streets of Lhasa. With a dead man in front of her, a living one shooting at her and the hand of a stranger held out to her in the darkness. When Dani grabs Shanes hand, he lifts her into a world of intrigue, danger, and love that she had never known before. Shane Crowe was prepared for everything but his response to Danis honesty. And her sensuality. Shaped in war, honed in battle, searching for peace in Lhasas ancient monastery, he is again thrust into the line of fire. Together Shane and Dani search for a fragile silk relic that has become the prize in an international tug of war. But to find it, they have to stay alive long enough to learn to trust themselves, each other, and love..com The ever talented Ann Maxwell (who also writes as Elizabeth Lowell and A. E. Maxwell--the E is for her husband, Evan, a co-author) always provides satisfying romance. In this thrilling contemporary, Dani Warren is a textile expert who is such a dilettante she will chase a rare and mythical piece of antique silk to the most remote corners of the world. In Lhasa, Tibet, Dani is almost killed for a fragment of cloth and finds herself smuggled out of the country to safety by Shane Crowe, an ex-mercenary employed by a mysterious private enterprise. Forced to work together to catch a ring of international criminals, the two reluctantly share their expertise despite their growing attraction to one another.
