Stuart remains queen of the romantic suspense sub-genreVon Ein KundeMulti-millionaire Sally MacDowell, knowing that she will soon die, regrets that her son Alex disappeared almost two decades ago without ever returning. That abruptly changes when an individual, claiming to be Alex, arrives at Sally's home. The claimant insists that he wants to reconcile with his mother before she dies. Carolyn Smith loves her Aunt Sally, who raised her as if she was her own daughter. Eighteen years ago, Carolyn adored Alex, following him around like a puppy dog. One night, she secretly trailed after him when he quietly walked to the nearby beach. She saw him meet someone, who shot and killed him. However, before she could report her observance, she was hospitalized with a severe case of pneumonia. The family members concluded that the feral Alex took off without a word as befitting his personality. Now, someone has arrived, claiming to be the deceased Alex and Aunt Sally believes him. Worse yet, Carolyn desperately wants to believe him too because she has fallen in love with the seductive intruder, who knows things that only she and Alex shared. No one writes romantic intrigue better than multi-award winning Anne Stuart does. Her fifty plus novels all share in common the fact that they entertain, frighten, and caress the audience with their suspense and romance. The latest novel from the grandmistress of the sub-genre, SHADOW LOVER, is typical of the awesome author. The story line is filled with increasing danger and doubt while the intelligent characters bring wit and charm. Once again, it is obvious why newcomers are compared to the incomparable Ms. Stuart, who always makes reading a pleasure. Harriet Klausner 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Another sexy suspense from Anne Stuart Von Ein Kunde Tired of the same old romantic suspense written by once favorite authors that promise much but deliver little? If so, read SHADOW LOVER, cleverly crafted by Anne Stuart who never lets her devoted fans down. Alexander MacDowell, morally bankrupt, degenerate and beautiful, has returned home after eighteen years to reclaim his place in the bosom of his spiteful, sniping family. Or has he come after the sizable fortune he will inherit from his terminally ill mother? Or will he instead claim Carolyn, the MacDowell family's own Cinderella? Would you recognize your first love were he to return to you after almost twenty years? Carolyn believes she would. And this Alex is not the boy who tormented her as an adolescent and who torments her now as a charming and all too sexy man. While falling under his spell once more, she nonetheless tries to unmask him as a fraud. And while she longs for this man to be Alex, she knows he can't be. Because Carolyn saw Alex murdered as she hid behind an abandoned boat the night he was shot to death at the family's beach house. Yet this impostor knows family secrets so private that he must be the resurrected Alex. Could some miracle have spared his life, or is someone in the family plotting with him in order to gain a share of the inheritance? Surprising, sexy and suspenseful, this novel is another in a long line of winners from Anne Stuart. You won't want this great read to end, but you'll be compelled to race through it to discover the truth of Alex's identity. If you enjoy this novel, try Stuart's other more recent novels of the same vein, MOONRISE, NIGHTFALL, or RITUAL SINS. You won't be disappointed. 1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. The best romance novel Von Ein Kunde This is the actual book that turned me into a romance novel reader. This book is so good that once you pick it up you are not going to want to put it down until you finish it. Most romance novels don't have a plot to back it up but this one has that and even more. The back drop story is so intriguing and suspenseful that it adds to the steamy hot love story.

Kurzbeschreibung Victim. Lover. Both? His dark game is seducing her-- just as it was when they were young. How can he still have that power over her? Eighteen years ago, she saw him die. Wealthy, selfish, and greedy, the McDowell family raised Carolyn McDowell--a foster child--like a modern Cinderella. Neglected and ignored, good-hearted Carolyn adored scion Alexander despite it all, though even he tormented her. When Alex ran away one night, Carolyn followed and witnessed his murder, though she never told anyone. Her beloved Alex died when he was seventeen. There was no doubt. Eighteen years later, Carolyn returns to the decadent milieu of the McDowell clan to care for her dying foster mother, Sally. As greedy relatives gather to claim their inheritances, a stunning stranger arrives, claiming to be Alexander. To Carolyn's utter shock, Sally greets her "son" without question, and no one but Carolyn believes he's a fraud. As she delves into the mysteries of both the past and present, Carolyn quickly realizes that the resurrected Alex is a dangerous combination of seduction and power. Is this stranger after the McDowell fortune, or is he really, somehow, the Alex of old, come back to claim her? How can he be an impostor and yet know family secrets only the real Alex would remember? Was someone helping him? What would you do if the boy you loved returned almost twenty years later, and you fell in love with him all over again--even if you were sure it couldn't be him? Kurzbeschreibung Victim. Lover.
