Kurzbeschreibung Charles Jenkins has dreamed of being in a female-led relationship for most of his adult life and for all of his marriage, only the female he wants to lead him has shown no interest in taking charge. Until today. Pamela, his wife, is finally willing to give the idea a try, and Charles sees a bright future of kinky sex, teasing, and pseudo-denial. Her desires are a far cry from her husbands, however, and fantasy collides with reality when she orders him ... to do their weekly grocery shopping. Can Charles sublimate this mundane task into a fetish-fueled adventure? Will Pamela be pleased enough to continue their experiment? Eggs, milk, butter, bondage! For mature readers only.
