EntertainingVon SandraGill McKnight's Garoul series was a mixed bag for me. I didn't much care for the first book, "Goldenseal." I loved the second book, "Ambereye," which had a great sense of humor. "Indigo Moon," the third book, was a solid, entertaining read, but not as good as "Ambereye."With that mixed record, I wasn't sure what to expect of the fourth book, "Silver Collar." Well, I liked the book. There are some funny scenes that reminded me of "Ambereye," and we meet Hope and Jolie again, but the main characters of this book are Luc (Lucienne), the rogue werewolf from book 3, and Emily, who is obsessed with hunting down a werewolf because she thinks the Garouls killed her father. I liked the fact that the characters don't fall in love at first sight or are instantly attracted to each other. When they meet, they are enemies, but that changes quickly. Sometimes, maybe a little too fast. Emily became a scientist and practically lived to take revenge on the Garouls, but she gives that up readily enough. All in all, though, it's a fast and entertaining read, and I recommend the book to anyone who enjoyed "Ambereye." 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. silver collar Von Ilona Felbein super buch. sehr spannend. humorvoll und hat alles was so ein fantasy buch braucht. kann man unbesorgt kaufen. xxx Kurzbeschreibung Luc Garoul is outlawed and out of control. The Garouls have set their best hunters after her before she self-destructs and takes the whole pack with her. But will they reach her in time? A more sinister predator has Luc in her crosshairs a hunter as cunning and unforgiving as her prey. Twenty years ago, Emily Johnstons father drowned in the Silverthread River, and no one in the town of Lost Creek believes it was an accident. For years, Emily has been spying on the Garouls. She has some ideas of her own as to what they really are. Now her chance has come. A lone Garoul has crossed her path, and Emily is determined to avenge her father. Emily is a strong and skilled hunter. And she has a silver collar. Fourth in the Garoul series. Kurzbeschreibung Luc Garoul is outlawed and out of control.
