romance, this book right in the middle of India, part spiritual (Hindu) and a little Bollywood fairy-tale is just perfect for me. What I love about Tirza Schaefer's work is the fact that each book is so complex. It's never just one-dimensional, but contains so many layers always, weaving many different topics into the mix of passionate love with an easy flow that is so unique, special and outstanding to this author's style. Her website and facebook fanpages are also a treasure chest akin to the cave of wonders from Aladdin's tale. So many beautiful things to find. Blog, poetry, romance, spiritual services, editing, children and parenting, spiritual and romantic poetry, the list goes on. Schaefer is as versatile as she is free in her expression, combining the holy and sacred with passion and real life. She has it all. Her many facets also flow into her work and style and I also love how her covers are so artsy and the interior is just as beautiful. Those are books you want to keep on your shelf and read over and over again! Love it! This book is great! From temple to bedroom, it all works! So rich, sweet and hot! 1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Snake Goddess Rising Von Kain Snake Goddess Rising by Tirza Schaefer isn't exactly the title you would expect from a romantic or erotic novel. It piqued my interest, so I bought it. I thought, at worst, I might gain some insights into some religious Indian (Hindu) practices. How this could be combined with the genre under which I found this book, I had no idea, but I was going to find out! The book surprised me upon reading even further. Not only does this narrative work on so many seemingly opposing levels, but it also works in its entirety! You don't have to be spiritually inclined to feel with the main character, a German woman travelling to India in the footsteps of her hippie mother to pay homage to a serpent deity, but the relationship she builds with the hero of the story is one imbued with gentle kindness, love and growing respect on both sides. An old grandmother and a wise and humorous Hindu priest all play a part as this story unfolds and the affection as well as the attraction of the two main characters progresses naturally from sizzling undercurrents to an explosion of fireworks. And all of this before the backdrop of a culture that is as enchanting and beautiful as it can be at times superstitious and fearful. Deep connection with spirituality combine with social conventions, sometimes at war with one another, but it also shows that with an open, loving heart, you can build a solid bridge not only between nations and cultures, but also on a very personal and intimate level that is as enriching as it is rewarding. The story doesn't really need any erotic components to stand in its own right, yet the marriage between all those factors works surprisingly well and adds yet another glorious level to the whole! I will definitely be reading more from this author! 1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. I truly believe there aren't any words in any language to accurately state how magnificent this book is. Von Mr 504 I truly believe there aren't any words in any language to accurately state how magnificent this book is. I am so excited that this author has finally decided to publish her books. Her blogs are outstanding as well. This book is romance, spirituality and filled with passion.

Kurzbeschreibung SNAKE GODDESS RISING by Tirza Schaefer Shanti's mother, a hippie in her younger years, had not been able to conceive a child until she worshipped at the shrine of the Snake Goddess Manasa in India. Nine months later, Shanti was born. Now Shanti visits this sacred site to ask for a husband. Kaz walks past the shrine and protects Shanti from some sinister looking men. He is a wonderful man who has come from the city to care for his dying grandmother. While Shanti's feelings for him grow, she isn't sure, if Kaz feels the same as he has different things on his mind and heart at the moment. He takes Shanti to a temple, introducing her to his uncle, a priest. When they return home, Grandma has a last dying wish. Can Shanti fulfil it?
